

Dothan / Houston County
Emergency Management / Public Safety

Joint Information Center

This morning the City of Dothan Commission and the Houston County Commission declared a curfew for all areas in the City and County beginning at 12 Noon today. This curfew will remain in place until lifted by the Commissions after a thorough damage assessment has been completed, after the storm has passed.

This curfew is being implemented for the safety of our citizens as well as making the roadways available for emergency responders and utility crews. When the curfew is lifted or areas of impact adjusted, notification will be sent through the Joint Information Center.

Everyone is advised to stay tuned to local media outlets for any advisories or information that may be issued from the Dothan / Houston County Joint Information Center.
