

Dothan Police Chief Will Benny

The Dothan Police Department is devoted to the protection of the Constitution of the United States and the Great State of Alabama. We are dedicated to professionalism, courtesy and equal treatment of our citizens and guests under the law. Whether you are already a certified APOST officer, have an out of state certification, or are just starting out, we will train and equip you to handle any situation with the best tools and teachers in the police environment. If you believe you have what it takes to become one of "Dothan's Finest," please follow the information contained in this brochure.

Thank you for your interest..
